PLACEMENT NOTICE FOR (MBA /) STUDENTS

Greetings from Avana Group,

<https://avanamedical.com/>

We are writing to introduce an exceptional career opportunity for MBA (Marketing), BSc, B. Tech graduates.

At AVANA Group, we are launching our flagship Medtech Mavericks Program, a meticulously designed pathway into the exciting and impactful field of medical device sales and marketing.

About Avana

AVANA's mission 'Preserving Health' comes from the concept of ancient Sanskrit definition of AVANA as Preservation. Since its inception, AVANA's strategy has always been to sustain a customer-centric culture by their focus and dedication. AVANA is building on a strong history of success to enhance the value it provides to healthcare providers and their patients. The company shares a commitment with healthcare providers to partner in providing the best and the most innovative technologies, treatments, and solutions to deliver high quality, cost-effective patient care.

AVANA is the first organization in India to introduce Global leader Arthrex's Adjustable Loop Tightrope Technology and 'Bone Conserving ACL Repair Solutions' as Graft Link Technique, in shoulder, Knotless Technology for dislocations and rotator cuff repairs which have redefined early mobility and has significantly improved outcomes for patients with a reduced pain.

About AVANA Group's Medtech Mavericks Program

This unique program is crafted to empower fresh graduates with comprehensive training, real-world exposure, and mentorship from top healthcare professionals.

The program is tailored to develop future leaders in the medical device industry who will revolutionize healthcare delivery and patient outcomes.

What the Program Offers Your Students:

- Comprehensive Training: A curriculum that builds advanced skills in sales, marketing, and business development, with a special focus on the healthcare domain.
- Expert Mentorship: Personalized guidance from industry veterans committed to shaping the next generation of Medtech professionals.
- Hands-On Experience: Unparalleled learning through participation in live medical procedures, cadaver workshops, and device usage training.
- Career Advancement Opportunities: Exceptional performers will secure leadership roles in our innovative and purpose-driven organization.

Why Choose AVANA Group?

- Purpose-Driven Work: Be part of a mission to improve healthcare delivery and patient care.
- Innovative Community: Collaborate in an environment that celebrates diversity, creativity, and continuous growth.

- Collaborative Leadership: Work closely with top healthcare professionals and learn from real-world market experiences.
- Personal and Professional Growth: Discover purpose, unleash potential, and build an impactful career with us.

Program Highlights:

- Position: Management Trainee/ Sales Trainee
- Location: Six months of intensive training in Chennai, followed by a permanent role based on final assessment at various locations.
- Duration: 6 months of training, transitioning to full-time employment on successful completion of the training and evaluation.
- Compensation: Monthly stipend of ₹30,000/- during training including the accommodation and covering the travel expenses, with a competitive CTC of ₹ 5 – 6 LPA upon confirmation.

We are keen to welcome exceptional talent from this transformative journey. Kindly share this opportunity through your placement channels.

Eligible candidates will undergo an initial HR screening, followed by interviews in Chennai. Specific details about the interview schedule will be shared closer to the date.

Additional Request

We are specifically looking for male candidates for this intake. Kindly provide a list of interested male candidates by 12th December 2024.

We would also love to schedule a virtual or in-person session to provide students with an overview of the program and answer any questions they might have.

Thank you for considering AVANA Group as a premier career destination for your students. We look forward to partnering and creating a meaningful impact together.

Role and Responsibilities: Management Trainee - Medtech Mavericks Program

In the Medtech Mavericks Program, the Management Trainee will be immersed in a robust training experience designed to equip them with advanced skills in medical sales and marketing. This role offers a mix of strategic learning and hands-on execution, shaping trainees into future leaders ready to make a significant impact in healthcare.

We wanted to clarify that we are not considering candidates with backgrounds in HR or Finance for this role. The ideal candidates should meet the following criteria:

1. Undergraduate (UG) Background: Candidates must have a science-related UG degree.
2. Postgraduate (PG) Background: If the candidate holds a PG degree, their UG degree should still be in a science-related field, and their PG specialization should be exclusively in Marketing.

This ensures alignment with the role requirements and organizational objectives.

Below are the expanded responsibilities:

1. Sales Development & Territory Management
 - Learn and execute effective sales techniques, including lead generation, relationship-building, and consultative selling in a designated territory.
 - Develop a thorough understanding of Avana's products and their unique value propositions, positioning them to meet customer needs effectively.
 - Collaborate with senior sales managers to develop strategic sales plans, set realistic targets, and analyze performance within the assigned market.

2. Clinical Support & Product Expertise
 - Gain clinical knowledge and provide technical support to healthcare providers during medical procedures, guiding them on proper device usage.
 - Conduct product demonstrations and training sessions for hospital staff, surgeons, and other stakeholders to ensure proper device handling and optimal outcomes.
 - Troubleshoot product-related issues on-site and liaise with technical teams to address any advanced support needs, ensuring high customer satisfaction.
3. Field Marketing & Brand Advocacy
 - Assist in executing Avana's marketing initiatives on the ground, including promotional activities, workshops, and community outreach events.
 - Build brand awareness by effectively communicating Avana's mission and values to healthcare professionals and potential customers.
 - Support digital marketing efforts by gathering customer insights and feedback to shape campaigns that resonate with target audiences.
4. Customer Relationship Management
 - Develop trust-based relationships with key accounts, becoming the main point of contact for product-related inquiries, service needs, and follow-ups.
 - Gather customer feedback to understand their experiences and preferences, providing recommendations to improve product features or service offerings.
 - Track and manage customer interactions using CRM tools, documenting valuable insights and fostering long-term partnerships.
5. Data-Driven Market Research & Strategic Insights
 - Conduct in-depth market research to identify emerging trends, competitor analysis, and potential gaps in Avana's offerings.
 - Assist the marketing and product teams by delivering data-driven insights that guide new product launches, positioning strategies, and target segmentation.
 - Prepare reports and presentations on market conditions, competitor activity, and sales projections, contributing to the development of business strategies.
6. Professional Development & Mentorship
 - Participate actively in structured training sessions, webinars, and hands-on workshops to gain deep industry knowledge and practical skills.
 - Work closely with assigned mentors who will provide regular feedback, career guidance, and support in developing essential leadership qualities.
 - Engage in self-driven learning, maintaining an up-to-date understanding of industry trends, regulatory changes, and medical advancements.
7. Cross-Functional Project Involvement
 - Collaborate with cross-functional teams (e.g., R&D, regulatory, operations) to gain insights into various aspects of the business and contribute to cross-departmental projects.
 - Take on project-based assignments that may involve assisting in product launches, supporting customer feedback initiatives, or analyzing the effectiveness of new sales strategies.
 - Contribute fresh ideas and approaches to Avana's overall mission, encouraging innovation and continuous improvement.
8. Evaluation and Performance Monitoring
 - Regularly track and evaluate personal performance metrics, setting actionable goals and achieving key performance indicators (KPIs) in collaboration with managers.
 - Reflect on performance reviews and feedback sessions to continuously improve skills and align with Avana's expectations.
 - Demonstrate a growth-oriented attitude by proactively seeking opportunities to learn, improve, and contribute beyond assigned tasks.

Special Information :

1. Yes, the candidates will be placed in various locations across India

2. No deductions will be there for UG – 25k & PG – 30K paid as stipend
3. After Training the CTC will be between 5 – 7 LPA
4. During the training period Accommodation will be provided.
5. Travel tickets will be booked by our team.

PLACEMENT NOTICE FOR (MBA / BBA) STUDENTS

Dear Students

British Columbia College of Management. invite you to participate in our upcoming placement drive for the role of Admission Counselor.

About Company:

The idea of the “British Columbia College of Management” (BCCM) was conceived by a group of highly experienced and seasoned professionals from the Hotel and Education industries, who observed that there is a definite need for an institute that can address the glaring shortage of qualified professionals for hospitality and service-oriented industries. They conceptualized the setup of this training institute after visualizing the constant struggle of HR departments in various Multinational Companies, in their pursuit of finding the right service professionals for various positions.

BCCM being run by industry professionals adopts a multi learning approach by not only focusing on academics but also mentoring the students through interactive sessions and seminars conducted by experts in the industry, along with special sessions on personality development and soft skills. Our aim is to bridge the gap between academics and the real world and to prepare our students to stay ahead in the industry competition.

As a rapidly growing organization in the education sector, we are constantly seeking talented and passionate individuals to join our team. We believe that the students of your universities possess the skills and potential that align with our company’s values and objectives.
