Dear Kamiya

I am pleased to submit my book proposal titled Innovations for Personalized and Equitable Learning using AI Tools and Techniques for your kind consideration. The book aims to explore how artificial intelligence can be strategically integrated into education to create learning systems that are not only adaptive and personalized, but also equitable and inclusive for diverse groups of learners.

I believe this book will be a strong fit for Springer Nature's catalogue and will contribute meaningfully to current scholarship and practice.

Please find attached Book Proposal Form, Annexure 1 for CV of editors, Annexure 2 for Table of Contents, Annexure 3 for Chapter outline.

Feel free to connect for any modifications and other requirements needed for the same.

Thanks and Regards

Dr. Sarita Yadav
